

A legend and title block for the site plan. The legend lists various symbols and colors used in the plan, such as green for vegetation, blue for water, and grey for buildings. The title block contains project information, including the name of the project, the date, and the name of the architect or engineer. It also includes a small map of the site's location within a larger context.

